

WELCOME TO THE FAROE ISLANDS

DEAR READER,

Welcome to the Faroe Islands. To these unique and stunning islands that for centuries were the hidden gem in the North Atlantic. But the secret is out now and the islands are luring record breaking numbers of visitors every year, as the Faroe Islands have become a top travel destination for travellers from every corner of the world.

As inhabitants of these eighteen green islands we are immensely proud of our beautiful and unspoiled country. It is our sincere hope, that you will enjoy your stay in the country, that you will experience the famous Faroese hospitality and leave again with fond memories of a truly special place.

The free paper that you are holding is brought to you by Miðlahúsið – the largest private owned media house in the Faroe Islands. It is our humble contribution in helping you to get an unforgettable time here in our country by providing tips and information from the local tourist information centres across the country. Furthermore you will find articles about dining experiences and local companies. This is all to ensure that you have the best possible time in our country.

We wish you a wonderful time in the Faroe Islands and hope that it will be an experience of a lifetime.

Regards
