

WHAT, WHERE, WHEN: WHATSON.FO

Want a great overview of all the many events that happen in the Faroe Islands? Check out www.whatson.fo.

Although small and remote, the Faroe Islands are packed with unique and authentic adventures and cultural events for every kind of visitor.

The Faroese culture scene offers an exciting variety of experiences in music, art, film, literature, crafts, design and gastronomy. At www.whatson.fo, you get a great overview of all these exciting experiences and much more.

WHAT'S ON IS FREE AND EASY TO USE.

The website includes a list overview, but also gives you the choice of visualising the various events and their locations by choosing to view in Map View. This might help you understand that the distance from one event to the next, from one island to the next, is not far, giving you a chance to try out many experiences within short distances.

You can also filter your choices according to type of experience, regions and dates.

Find out more at www.whatson.fo.