FINANCE

Tíðindaskriv

Føroya Banki is the leading corporate bank on the Faroe Islands and is in the forefront when it comes to providing financial services to the fishing industry. The North Atlantic Fish Fair presents an excellent opportunity for us to keep abreast with what is happening in the fishing industry, both within the Faroe Islands and internationally.

Throughout its 100-year long history, Føroya Banki has cultivated a particular expertise among its corporate banking advisors, who have established durable business connections to the Bank's customers in the corporate business area. Føroya Banki's biggest corporate customers have always been in the Faroese fishing industry and the Bank strives to continually improve service in this area.
