

FØROYABANKI

Solid as a Rock

In May 2008, Føroya Banki, as the first Faroese corporation ever, was awarded a credit rating from the international credit institution Moody's. The Bank was awarded an A3 rating, which means that the international money market can safely trust Føroya Banki.

As a major player in the business community, Føroya Banki has the know-how and the capacity to realise the potential of your company.

Føroya Banki has supervised and financed the Faroese business community in good times as well as bad times for the last 100 years. During this time, the Faroes have developed immensely, and we are proud to say that Føroya Banki has played a significant part in this development. These 100 years have taught us much, and we are ready for more.
