VILT Adventure

Vilt is a Faroese firm that operates within the industry of planning and organizing trip, sightseeing experiences, daily excursions and visits around the Faroes. These are all great experiences with excitement and fun.

Daily Excursions:

We plan daily excursions every Wednesday, from May until August, so if there is an interest in these exciting and fun trips, then we are ready to plan an excursion of your requirements.

Excursions:

We organize trips with guides, busses, food, visit etc. in order for you to get the most and the best experience from your visit.

Planning:

If you have a group of people or maybe an organization that is interested in a special day, such as team building, then we are happy to plan this event for you, according to your needs and wants. We have great experiences, professional employees and a variety of options and activities for you to try.
